

I am strongly opposed to any change in law which allows any single company to own more than what is currently allowed. This will continue to constrict the information that is available to the public through its media which is one of the most important foundations of this country.